I. INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE

A. INTRODUCTION

University facilities are in constant demand for use by CSU departments, groups and individuals as well as those external to the university. Meeting this demand while avoiding scheduling conflicts and preserving and protecting the facilities and their users is a complex and challenging process. In order to best serve the interests of the university, treat all users fairly, and assure the continuing availability of high-quality facilities, the Department of Facilities Management has issued this Campus Facility Use Manual.

Productive use of university facilities is necessary to accomplish the role and mission of Colorado State University. Use of university facilities should generally be afforded first to university-related groups, such as departments, academic units, and class sections, before making them available for use by external customers. Priority of use has therefore been established as follows:

“Students, faculty, staff, and specified university related group functions, including academic, research, and student-centered social and recreational activities, shall have first priority. Second priority shall be given to meetings of professional and semiprofessional nature that are related to the work of the university and that will involve resources of the university.”

In this context, it should be noted that it is the recognized policy of the University that academic uses of facilities shall have a special priority over other uses.

B. PURPOSE

This manual represents the University’s official policy. The goals of this policy are:

1. To centralize and coordinate the process of scheduling facilities.
2. To minimize scheduling conflicts throughout the campus community.
3. To maintain and enforce consistent scheduling policies and priorities.
4. To maintain and enforce consistent procedures.
5. To maintain and enforce consistent fees and contracts for rental facilities.
6. To increase campus awareness of events.
7. To provide a designated liaison to the local community with regard to scheduling of programs and events on campus.
8. To increase the use of campus facilities, thus providing additional revenue to the university.
9. To aid in the coordination of academic and non-academic scheduling priorities.
10. To help protect the safety of the University community and preserve the integrity and condition of the University’s facilities.

C. POLICY STATEMENT REGARDING APPLICATION OF LAWS AND REGULATIONS

All Colorado State University facilities are under the jurisdiction of the state of Colorado, and any use thereof is subject to the laws of the state of Colorado and rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto. Persons using university facilities are at all times subject to applicable federal, state and local laws and ordinances as well as the policies of the Board of Governors and the university. Any use of such facilities in violation of such laws and policies will subject an offending party to civil and/or criminal liability. Further, any person who enters into a contract (written or verbal) on behalf of the state of Colorado or Colorado State University for use of facilities, without specific authority to do so, may be held personally liable on such contract.

The university reserves the right to deny use of any facility for any reason (other than a reason that would in itself constitute a violation of law or policy) determined to be necessary to protect persons or property or the best interests of the institution. The associate vice president for Facilities Management is charged with the responsibility for such determinations, subject to appeal to the vice president for University Operations, whose decision on such matters is final.

II. GENERAL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

A. REQUESTING USE OF UNIVERSITY FACILITIES

General Assignment Classrooms

A separate CSU policy on scheduling general assignment classrooms is issued by the provost/executive vice president and may be found in the CSU Policy Library (<http://policies.colostate.edu>). For reservations and assistance, contact the Office of the Registrar (<http://registrar.colostate.edu/>).

Special Use Facilities

Activities that are not academically oriented that occur either on campus grounds or in academic buildings are considered special and must be coordinated through the facilities management event support coordinator.

The event support coordinator is responsible for evaluating each request, determining the various entities that will be affected by the activity, and getting feedback or approval from each one, interpreting agency policy and procedures for requestors, approving requests, and following up on each activity. The primary objective is to help requestors have a successful event that is safe for participants and protects university property. See the University Events Calendar for a summary of scheduled items.

Many university facilities are designed or equipped primarily for special uses. Such facilities may not be available for general and public use or may be subject to special priorities for use. Facilities Management Event Support Office maintains an inventory of such facilities. Requests to have a facility designated as a special use facility should be submitted to the event support coordinator.

Approval of Requests for Use of University Facilities

Facilities Management, in cooperation with the area coordinator, where appropriate, will approve requests for use of university facilities based on factors including, but not limited to:

- Availability of facility.
- Facility use priority system (see below).
- Appropriateness and general feasibility of facility for use specified.
- Potential conflict with other activities.
- Fulfillment of necessary requirements, including but not limited to, payment of fees, proof of insurance, existence of proper use agreements, required approval of other university departments.

B. GENERAL FACILITY USE PRIORITY SYSTEM

The general rule for university facility use priority is as follows, with specific guidelines for a particular facility taking precedence when applicable:

Students, faculty, staff and specific university-related group functions, including student-centered academic, social and recreational activities shall have first priority. Second priority shall be given to meetings of a professional and semiprofessional nature that are related to the work of the university and that will involve academic resources of the university.

In this context, it is the policy of the university that academic uses of facilities shall have a special priority over other uses, where “academic” (as it pertains to facility use) is defined as:

1. Courses for credit or credit earning activities (where such activities are for compulsory fulfillment of established degree program requirements) and non-credit courses required for admission to or completion of degree program requirements, where registration and tuition payments are through the Registrar’s Office or the Division of Continuing Education.
2. Faculty research defined or approved in advance through proper channels.
3. Compulsory graduate student research which fulfills established degree requirements.

C. RESOLVING CONFLICTS

When a scheduling conflict arises, e.g. two parties requesting the same facility for the same date and no existing priority guideline addresses the conflict or it is otherwise unresolved, then a review process is available to resolve the conflict. However, it is expected that the parties involved will cooperatively investigate all possibilities (including use of comparable facilities) which would allow accommodation of multiple activities before calling upon the review process.

Review will occur in a four-step process:

1. The Event Support Office gathers the information necessary before reviewing a conflict. This may include documentation of the conflict, written statements submitted by each party involved, and suggested solutions.
2. The department heads of those involved in the dispute will be asked to review the information submitted in step 1 and may recommend a resolution to the event support coordinator.
3. In the event that a resolution satisfactory to all concerned cannot be reached by the event support coordinator, the matter will be submitted to the associate vice president for Facilities Management to resolve the conflict based upon the best interest of the university.
4. The decision of the associate vice president may be appealed to the vice president for University Operations, whose decision shall be final.

The “best interests of the university” will be the guiding principle in resolving all conflicts, as determined by examining factors such as:

- Academic consideration in the dispute;
- The financial implications to the university as a whole. The financial implications to the university, with regard to Moby Arena, will receive priority consideration during summer and break periods;
- Other commitments or factors affecting the university;
- The university-wide public relations opportunities involved, including student recruitment; and
- Inherent equity to all affected departments or students.

Under normal circumstances, this review process shall be completed within four weeks. When circumstances require an expedited process, the event support coordinator will do so to the extent practicable. Failure of a party to act or respond in a timely and reasonable fashion may result in a determination unfavorable to that party.

D. ROLE OF AREA COORDINATORS

The policies and procedures contained in this manual are designed to guide the area coordinators. It is the area coordinator's responsibility to uphold these policies and report misuse of facilities through the proper channels.

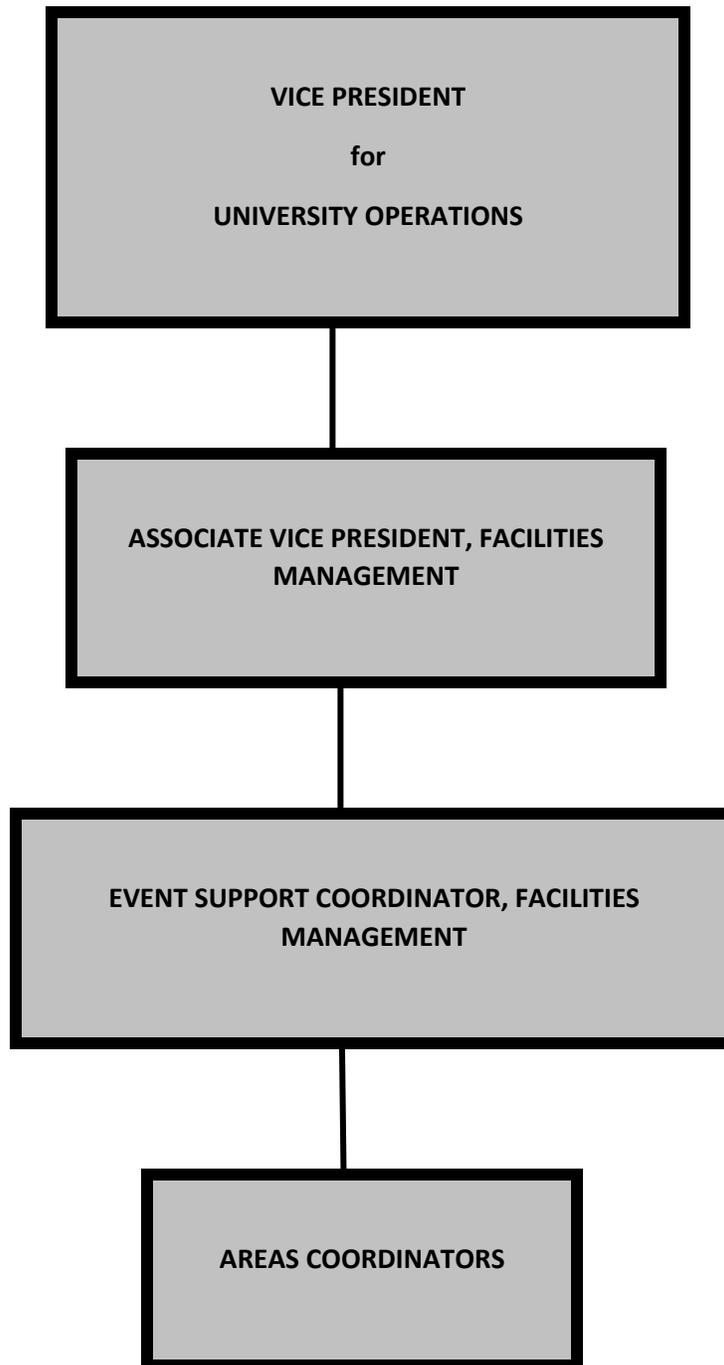

Area Coordinators act as coordinators for special use facilities within their areas of responsibility. This includes working with other area coordinators and the event support coordinator to ensure the scheduling of facilities and services does not conflict with other events on campus. Area coordinators do not play a decision-making role with respect to the use of facilities, but rather, fulfill the coordination and facilitation functions needed to effectively operate a centralized scheduling network. It is the responsibility of Facilities Management to coordinate use of special use facilities through the area coordinators including use agreements, insurance requirements, notifications, etc.

Area coordinator may not be necessary for all facilities, rather only those with unique uses such as, but not limited to, animal handling/holding facilities, arenas, labs, performance halls and theaters, etc. Area Coordinators are assigned by the department having primary responsibility and oversight of special use facilities.

Area coordinators:

- Are responsible for keeping an up-to-date, public master calendar of programs and events scheduled for the facilities in their designated area.
- Are responsible for submitting a listing of the events and activities scheduled in their facilities to the Facilities Management event support coordinator within the appropriate time frame.
- May also act as facilitators in situations where a scheduling conflict occurs.
- May be required to perform other functions or duties to meet the needs of their particular areas.

FACILITIES SCHEDULING ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

This structure identifies the individuals responsible for administering the use of university facilities. The vice president for University Operations has the ultimate authority and responsibility for facility use.

E. LARGE EVENT GUIDELINES

The University expects the rights and privileges of all persons to be respected and that there will be no endangerments to University property or the health or safety of the campus community, or significant disruptions to normal University operations. The following guidelines apply to all large events to be hosted or sponsored by University departments, registered student organizations or non-campus parties on University property. These guidelines will be enforced in a content-neutral manner to facilitate the exercise of rights of free speech and assembly while also protecting the University community.

Scope of Guidelines

These guidelines apply to any large events hosted or sponsored on University property by University departments, registered student organizations and non-campus parties. Only University employees acting in the course and scope of their University employment may organize and supervise a departmental event.

For purposes of these guidelines, a large event is any planned gathering, including but not limited to celebrations, lectures, forums, performances, rallies, social gatherings, concerts, speaker presentations, and conferences to be hosted or sponsored on University property by University departments, registered student organizations and non-campus parties.

Large Events are events at which the following conditions apply:

1. Over 200 or more persons are anticipated to attend; or
2. Authorized University officials, such as the Public Safety Team, CSUPD, the University Special Events Advisory Group, or event planning staff (University Events or LSC Events) determine that the event is likely to significantly affect campus safety and security, or significantly affect normal University operations, including but not limited to providing usual and customary services to students, faculty and staff, classes and educational activities.

Any determination by University officials that an event constitutes a large event shall be based on the officials' content-neutral assessment of information relevant to the proposed event.

The University reserves the right to classify any proposed event as a large event subject to this policy, consistent with the guidelines above. Event hosts and sponsors are encouraged to consult with the appropriate campus contact at the earliest possible time to help ensure the event is properly planned and may be successfully hosted.

Purpose of Guidelines

These guidelines are implemented to promote the safe and orderly use of University property. Priority for the use of University property is given to University departments and registered student organizations. Subject to the requirements of these guidelines, and to campus regulations and policies applicable to specific facilities, campus facilities may be made available for use by non-campus parties provided the facilities are not needed and the use would not disrupt campus operations or activities.

These guidelines operate in conjunction with specific requirements for use of each campus facility. Facility reservation deadlines and other procedural details may vary among campus facilities. Therefore, the facility manager of the requested venue must be consulted before the event to obtain specific details concerning reservation and event procedures.

Failure to comply with campus regulations and policies pertaining to events may result in denial of the facility use request.

Rules and Procedures

Event organizers are responsible for all costs. This includes, but is not limited to, facility fees, reasonable security costs, and any damages that arise from the event. The following rules apply to all large events:

1. The use or possession of illegal drugs and weapons are prohibited at all campus events.
2. All event attendees may be subject to search for contraband, weapons, drugs, alcohol, and other illegal or prohibited materials as deemed reasonably necessary to ensure the safety and security of event participants, the campus community and University property. Participants will be notified through clearly posted signs near event entrances if they will be subject to a search.
3. The maximum room capacity for all campus facilities must be observed at all times.
4. The possession or consumption of alcohol at large events is prohibited unless approved, in advance, pursuant to the CSU Alcohol and Drug policy.

Any University department, registered student organization or non-campus party that wishes to host or sponsor a large event must adhere to the following requirements as determined by the authorized University officials:

1. Contact the appropriate office to make a preliminary reservation request for the event's desired location, preferably six weeks or more prior to the event, and provide general information regarding the proposed event, the parties involved, who it will be marketed to, anticipated number of participants and related information sufficient to allow for event planning. For proposed events at the Lory Student Center, contact LSC Events. For proposed events at any other location, contact Facilities Management. The preliminary reservation request does not constitute approval of the use of the venue at the proposed date and time.
2. Requests to host large events will be reviewed by the University in consultation with the CSU Police Department, Public Safety Team, Emergency Management, Office of the General Counsel, Risk Management and Insurance, or other relevant campus units.
3. Large event organizers must meet with relevant campus officials to review event details at least four weeks prior to the event to share event information and discuss logistical expectations.
4. Changes to event details (e.g., speakers, expected attendance, location, etc.) submitted may result in denial of the facility use as requested.
5. Event insurance must be secured, and the event host or sponsor must provide confirmation of insurance at least one week prior to the event.
6. CSUPD will conduct a security assessment based on information provided from the event organizers and such other information CSUPD may obtain. CSUPD, in consultation with the CSU Public Safety Team, will assess security needs based on objective and credible evidence of specific risks, and not on assessment of the viewpoints, opinions, or anticipated expression of event speakers, sponsors, participants, community, or performers. Permissible factors for consideration include but are not limited to:

- the proposed location of the event
  - the estimated number of participants based on event organizer estimates and any other relevant information, including past or similar events at CSU or other locations
  - the time of the day that the event is to take place
  - the date and day of the week of the event
  - the proximity of the event to other activities or locations that may interfere, obstruct, or lessen the effectiveness of the security measures being implemented
  - the resources needed to secure the event
  - the anticipated weather conditions
  - the estimated duration of the event
  - any similar viewpoint- and content-neutral considerations relevant to assessment of security needs.
7. CSUPD will make security recommendations that, in its professional judgment, will address security threats identified as a result of the evaluation. The goals of CSUPD's security recommendations will be to:
- a. Minimize risks to the health and safety of the event participants and audience;
  - b. Minimize risks to the campus and surrounding community;
  - c. Maximize the ability of the event sponsors to successfully hold the event; and
  - d. Protect the rights of free expression by the event sponsors, participants, and community.
- Recommended security measures may include, but are not limited to, adjusting the venue, date, or time of the event; providing or requiring additional law enforcement; imposing controls or security checkpoints; and creating buffer zones around the venue.
8. If CSUPD determines the event has substantial security needs, the host organization must schedule a security assessment meeting with CSUPD no later than three weeks prior to the event date. The meeting may include, as necessary, the following: the relevant facility manager or designee; representatives from the sponsoring organization or non-campus party; and anyone else whose presence is requested by CSUPD. CSUPD will discuss security concerns and recommendations at the security assessment meeting, and meeting participants will discuss options for mitigating security needs that CSUPD has identified. CSUPD will make the determination if mitigation efforts are sufficient.
9. If CSUPD determines that, because of new information it has received or changing circumstances, its security assessment must be modified, it will schedule additional meetings or communications with stakeholders to discuss its revised recommendations.
10. Should the event organizers and CSUPD be unable to agree on implementation of security measures or recommendations, the event sponsor may submit an appeal to the chair of the CSU Public Safety

Team for final determination. The chair may determine the security measures required for the event based on CSUPD's security assessment. The goals of that determination will be to:

- a. Minimize any identified threat to health and safety of the event participants and audience;
  - b. Minimize any identified threat to the campus and surrounding community;
  - c. Maximize the ability of the event sponsors to successfully hold the event; and
  - d. Protect the exercise of rights of free expression by the event sponsors, participants, and community.
11. The event sponsors must pre-pay 50 percent of estimated security costs as reasonably established by CSUPD at least seven days prior to the event, and reimburse the remaining amount owed within 14 days of the event. Costs will be based on standard billing rates for CSUPD for providing police services or supplemental contracted security as approved by CSUPD, personnel and for any associated equipment costs or rentals. The number of personnel and amount and type of equipment charged will be based on the CSUPD assessment, including but not limited to the following criteria:
- a. Event venue, including venue size, location, number of entrances and exits to be staffed;
  - b. Time of day;
  - c. Number of expected attendees;
  - d. Whether entrances will be controlled and whether tickets will be sold;
  - e. Whether the event will be open or advertised to non-affiliates of the University;
  - f. Whether alcohol will be served;
  - g. Whether there will be sales of food, beverages, or other items and whether cash handling will occur;
  - h. Whether event performers come with personal security teams or details that require CSUPD liaisons; and
  - i. Whether event sponsors or event performers request additional security measures.

Additional security fees will not be charged to event sponsors based on the subject matter of the event or the viewpoints, opinions, expression of the sponsors, event performers, or others participating in the event.

F. FREE SPEECH AND PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY

The First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States assures that "Congress shall make no law ... abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble ...". These rights to free speech and peaceful assembly are to be afforded and protected by the University. The University acknowledges the right of students and others to assemble in groups on the University campus for peaceful rallies, demonstrations, and gatherings.

The University may, consistent with the Constitution and applicable law, require compliance with reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions that are content neutral, narrowly tailored to serve a significant governmental interest and leave open ample alternative channels for communication of the information or message. Generally, such reasonable restrictions will be enforced to the extent necessary to assure the safety of the campus community and the orderly operations of the institution. The University expects the rights and privileges of all persons to be respected and that there will be no endangerments to health or safety. Such gatherings must in no way disrupt the normal conduct of University affairs or endanger University property. This policy both facilitates the exercise of these rights of free speech and assembly and protects the University community.

Nothing in this policy is intended to authorize or permit any activity that is otherwise unlawful.

See link for complete policy <http://policylibrary.colostate.edu/policy.aspx?id=696>.
