JUSTICE

JUSTICE is “…the right to be treated and the responsibility to treat others with fairness and equity, the duty to challenge prejudice, and to uphold the laws, policies and procedures that promote justice in all respects.”

—Principles of Community

Justice efforts address inequalities that arise from a differential distribution of power, resources, opportunities, and privilege. Examples of justice work could include:

⇒ Efforts for equitable:
  ◦ Compensation
  ◦ Career advancement and professional development opportunities
  ◦ Employee performance systems
  ◦ Participation and voice in departmental efforts
⇒ Improving policies, procedures, or transparent decision-making processes at CSU
⇒ Noticing something that meets standards, but improving it to become better and more equitable for our entire community.

EQUITY

With EQUALITY, we think “same”—each individual or group is given the same resources or opportunities.

With EQUITY, we consider the different barriers and conditions that exist for individuals and groups. Different resources or opportunities may be needed to reach an equal outcome.

DIVERSITY

DIVERSITY is a representation of people’s identities and experiences. Examples are:

⇒ Age  ◦ Religious and spiritual beliefs
⇒ Culture  ◦ Sex
⇒ Different ideas and perspectives  ◦ Sexual orientation
⇒ Disability  ◦ Socioeconomic status
⇒ Ethnicity  ◦ Physical appearance
⇒ First generation status  ◦ Medical diagnosis
⇒ Familial status  ◦ Documentation status
⇒ Gender identity and expression  ◦ Veteran status
⇒ Geographic background  ◦ Populations historically underrepresented or excluded from participation in higher education
⇒ Marital status  ◦ National origin
⇒ Race

INCLUSION

INCLUSION, sometimes referred to as INCLUSIVITY, makes the diversity that exists in our community meaningful. It is an intentional action.

Differences in identity and experience are embraced and included in how things get done.

Systems, projects, and programs are created with the needs and talents of a diversity of people and groups in mind, so that people feel welcomed, valued, and affirmed.
