

300.1 Benefits

Full- or part-time employees of the State of Colorado may receive benefits under the Colorado Revised Statutes and the State Personnel Director's Administrative Procedures. The plans offered by the state are intended and expected to continue, but the state reserves the right to discontinue or revise the plans at any time. More detailed information is available from the Benefits Office, Human Resource Services Department.