

900.8 Network Usage

Network access to global electronic resources on the Internet is provided by Facilities Management to assist employees in obtaining work-related resources. While network access is intended for job-related activities, incidental, appropriate and occasional brief personal use will be permitted within reasonable limits.