

900.9 Mail System Usage

Use of the campus mail service is limited to University business and is governed by specific regulations. Mail Distribution sorts and processes all inbound, outbound, and Campus Mail. University departments are provided with supplies and services such as stamps, forms, labels, and Priority Mail supplies. All mail processed at this facility must be paid for with department funds. No personal mail is accepted and no stamps for personal use are available for sale.