DEFINITIONS
UNIVERSITY AND STATE AGENCIES, REPRESENTATIVES, DEPARTMENTS, AND FACILITIES MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATION CHART

Architect/Engineer:
Any person or firm that prepares a design for construction or alteration of facilities at Colorado State University.

Colorado Commission of Higher Education:
A Colorado State Commission responsible for approval of education, building and Capital Construction plans.

Contractor:
A person or firm that contracts with the State of Colorado to provide a product or service.

Environmental Health Services:
Part of the division of Administrative Services responsible for the health and safety of faculty, staff and students.

Facilities Management:
See organizational chart - next page.

Owner:
The State of Colorado, The Board of Governors of Colorado State University System acting by and through Colorado State University.

Physical Development Committee:
A group of University representatives responsible for the total environmental quality of the University which includes land, water and buildings through coordination of efforts and approval of plans.

University Representative:
The person designated by the University to represent the University's interest in a construction project.