FACILITIES MANAGEMENT

AT COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

FM WEEKLY
COMMUNICATION

Issue 149

Greetings, FM Team.

You can now apply for the spring session of the FM Leadership Academy, which begins the first week in March. The application is attached for those who are interested. More information can be found on our webpage.

The inaugural graduating class was recently honored in a ceremony in December. You can read more about it in SOURCE, "Facilities Management Leadership Academy honors first graduating class."

Who can apply?

- Full-time FM State Classified and Administrative Professional employees who have been in their position for a year or more.
- State Classified employees must have a satisfactory review of 2 or above.
- Administrative Professional employees must have a review of 3 or above.
- Anyone at any level of their career in all of the FM sections and groups may apply.
- Supervisor approval is required, indicated through a signature on the one-page application.
- Spanish translation services available, if needed.

Applications are due by 1/31.

The application review period is 2/1 – 2/11.

An email announcing student selection will be sent to all applicants the week of 2/14.

Purpose of FM Leadership Academy

The FM Leadership Academy is specific to our department, CSU Facilities Management. The overall purpose of the academy is to invest in our employees; increase our team's knowledge and skills; support career progression and succession planning; and to engage and retain employees. The academy furthers your expertise and contextual leadership skills through learning about the four main pillars of our business: Finance and Administration; Planning, Design, Construction; Utilities; Operations and Maintenance. Engaging in this opportunity will broaden employees' understanding of the FM profession while also developing your professional networks. We hope you will apply!
