

OCTOBER
25, 2021

FACILITIES MANAGEMENT

AT COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

FM WEEKLY
COMMUNICATION

Issue 141

Dear FM Team,

The CSU Diversity Symposium is this week, October 25-29! If you want to attend, first register here: <https://inclusiveexcellence.colostate.edu/symposium/registration/>. Sessions are free and will be virtual on Zoom. Talk to your supervisor about attending a session virtually as a team. This is an excellent way to demonstrate the JEDI Core Competency in your review.

Examples of sessions offered:

- o A Book Club Isn't Enough: Engaging Colleagues in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion at Predominantly White Institutions
- o Seeing the Unseen: Exploring Aspects of Blindness, Identity, Culture, and Experience
- o Tools for Furthering Equity and Inclusion in Community Engagement
- o CSU Inspire

I encourage folks to participate if they can make attending a session work for their schedules—or fit in a pre-recorded session. More info on schedule and related events can be found here: <https://inclusiveexcellence.colostate.edu/symposium/>.

Tom Satterly, P.E.
Associate Vice President for Facilities Management

<https://www.fm.colostate.edu/fmNews>
fac_news@mail.colostate.edu